

Please leave the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law intact as is. Because I do business with someone does not give them the right to enter my home uninvited. My telephone, computer etc. are extensions of my home, my private space. Thank you, Carl